FUNDRAISING

TABLESCAPES

Wheels for Wellness held its 7th Annual signature fundraiser, Tablescapes, in April hosting a large crowd at Millwood Station Banquet Hall. The Sunday afternoon event is an elegant showcase of fine dining and entertaining exhibiting an array of creative and artful displays. From formal family heirlooms to whimsical picnics and everything in between. This event has become a favorite for decorators, guests and draws new guests and participants each year.

The afternoon not only features decorated dining tables, also childrens tables, a silent auction, raffle, door prizes, displays, demonstrations, music, refreshments and more.

From sponsorships, ticket sales, raffle, silent auction and donations the 2023 event netted $12,601 for the program.

INT'L AFFAIR OF FOOD AND WINE

Wheels for Wellness was honored to have been chosen as the 2023 recipient of the proceeds of the International Affair of Food and Wine hosted by the Winchester Rotary Club Charitable Foundation.

The evening event at Fox Meadow Barn featured local premier restaurants on-site with prepared hors d'oeuvres expertly paired with wines by Kysela Pere et Fils, Ltd. The evening also featured live music, a silent auction and wine pull.

Wheels for Wellness was presented with a check by the event chairs Tootie Rinker and Linda Coffman in the amount of $18,000.

GAS CARD RAFFLE

Each fall Wheels for Wellness raffles a $500 Exxon/Mobil gas card thanks to the generosity of H.N.Funkhouser & Co. who donates this prize to the organization.

Thanks to a partnership with Marlow Automotive Group, second prize, a $300 Exxon/Mobil gas card was donated by the automotive group.

Third prize of a $50 Exxon/Mobil gas card and a $50 Food and Laughs restaurant gift card were donated by Frederick County residents John and Ann Lamanna. Ms. Lamanna serves as Chair of the WFW Board of Directors.

Thanks to these generous sponsors all proceeds were net profit for Wheels of Wellness. The 2023 raffle made $4,210 for the organization.
